Dear Mr. Weisberg

First of all I would like to tell you how excited I was having spoke to you on the phone last Saturday.

I very much appreciate your taking the time to sign my books for me. When I finally came across a copy of Whitewash (thus completing my set) the proprietor of the bookshop suggested I write to you asking if you would autograph them for me.

I must admit, it seemed like a longshot to me at the time, but after speaking to you, I realized how down to Earth you really are.

You had also said, Mr. Weisberg, That I should send a note Stating what I would like to have inscribed. While your signature would be more than enough, any inscription that you deem appropriate would be fine by me.

Thank you for your time and trouble.

Sincerely

George Reilly
